Part 28

The Woman who Pleads—LVIII

looking for the Good Pleasure of Allah, but that they did not foster as they should have done. Yet We bestowed on those among them who followed their (due) reward, but many of them are rebellious transgressors. 28. O ye that believe! fear Allah, and believe in His Messenger, and He will bestow on you a double portion of His Mercy: He will provide for you a Light by which ye shall walk (straight in your path), and He will forgive you (your past): for Allah is the Forgiving, Most Merciful: 29. That the People of the Book may know that they have no power whatever over the Grace of Allah, that (His) Grace is (entirely) in His Hand, to bestow it on whomsoever He wills. For Allah is the Lord of Grace abounding.

Al-Mujādila, or The Woman who Pleads

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful.

1. Allah has indeed heard (and accepted) the statement of the woman who pleads with thee concerning her husband and carries her complaint (in prayer) to Allah: and Allah (always) hears the arguments between both of you: for Allah hears and sees (all things).

2. If any men among you divorce their wives by Zihār (calling them mothers), they cannot be their mothers: none can be their mothers except those who gave them birth. And in fact they use words (both) iniquitous and false: but truly Allah is All-Pardoning, All-Forgiving.

3. But those who pronounce the word "Zihār" to their wives then wish to go back on the words they uttered — (it is ordained that such a one) should free a slave before they touch each other: this are ye admonished to perform: and Allah is well-acquainted with (all) that ye do.

4. And if any has not (the means), he should fast for two months successively before they touch each other, but if any

Orphaned at age six, he was reared in modest surroundings Islamic tradition tells us that he was illiterate.. In 622, fearing for his safety, Muhammad fled to Medina (a city some 200 miles north of Mecca), where he had been offered a position of considerable political power.. This flight, called the Hegira, was the turning point of the Prophet's life In Mecca, he had had few followers. Impression Autodesk For Mac
